

WINTERGRASS

Youth Orchestra Registration

"Bridging the gap between classical and oral tradition"

Registration is $100 and includes a Saturday & Sunday ticket to Wintergrass, music for all selections in your part for the orchestra and a 4 hour Saturday session with Bob Phillips (ASTA), Darol Anger, Väsen, The Wilders, Claire Lynch, Renata Bratt and other respected clinicians. Upon receipt of your registration you will be emailed music for your part, so be sure to include an email address! The Wintergrass Youth Orchestra program is geared toward middle and high school age students who either already belong to a school or community symphony or orchestra, or who are fluent readers of music notation. Students who learn by listening only may also be considered for participation in the orchestra with the approval of Education Director, Beth Fortune. The Wintergrass Youth Orchestra 2011 performance is a nominee for the International Bluegrass Music Association Event of the Year award.

This registration form is for single students who are not members of the participating orchestras but who wish to learn the music and join the orchestra on Wintergrass weekend. At least one rehearsal will be scheduled in January for all participants.

Orchestra rehearsal and session with Bob Phillips, Saturday February 25, 2012 at the Evergreen Ballroom at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in downtown Bellevue at 900 Bellevue Way NE. The session will be conducted from 9:30am to 2pm.
